The only child of Charles Thiede, the wife-slayer, who is soon to pay the pensity for his crime on the scaffold, was yesterday adopted by Mrs. Louisa C. Koenan and given a new name. Liftle Anna Thiede, as she has formerly been known, will bereafter be Mary Louisa Koenan. The hearing for adoption was held before Jiege McNaily and as there were no objections, the order was made as prayed for and little Mary and Mrs. Koenan left the court room as mother and daughter. Mrs. Koenan, Mary's new mother, was brought into unpleasant notoriety some years ago by the clobement of her husband with a young woman of this dity. She is said to be a good woman and Mary will undoubtedly have a good home.

Councilman Romney said he believed there were two vacancies in the board of police and fire commissioners and he desired to name one candidate for the position. Dale objected, stating he desired to name one candidate for the position. Dale objected, stating he desired the matter to go over for one week as he understood a bill had been introduced in the legislature to abolish this branch of the department. Romney, however, was permitted to proceed, and named ex-Councilman Louis Cohn.

Upon motion the election went over for one week.

City Attorney McKay was then given the privilege of the floor and dillated on the benefits to be derived from a repeal of the present law governing the police and fire departments. He read extensively from the proposed measure and emphasized the particular changes which he thought were good. He announced that the legislative committee would get together tonight and the council committee of five and police should meet with them. Upon motion of Mr. Elliott an invitation to meet with the committee was extended to ex-Mayor Baskin, Judge Powers and City Attorney McKay.

Another motion then followed by Bickle for the appointment of a special committee of three to which the matter should be referred, carried, and Buckle, Wiscomb and Elliot were then appointed by the chairman.
